

Hello! Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Tami Harris and I am a Qkids teacher here in Ohio. I finished my career a few years ago, having been an Intervention Specialist at a brick and mortar school district. Now I am retired from there but teach online at my own convenience, when and where I want to - AND YOU CAN TOO! I would like the opportunity to explain the Qkids platform to you. Please contact me at your earliest convenience and I will change the way you look at teaching!

I am an Independent Contractor with Qkids, an online school based in China, which allows me to teach the children of China from my own home, choosing my own hours. I would like to bring this amazing opportunity to you. This opportunity is geared towards those who currently hold a Teaching Certification, or Qkids will pay for the TESOL certification to get you certified to teach online -- FREE FOR YOU. Qkids pays its teachers between \$17-\$20 an hour, all without leaving the comfort of your home, and you choose your own days and hours to work -- 30 minute lessons -- early mornings, evenings and weekends are most needed!

Qkids is a leading online education platform that connects North American English teachers with over 600,000 Chinese students from ages 4 to 12 years old. Using a narrative game-based learning platform, thousands of English teachers from the U.S. and Canada guide students through a fun and dynamic curricular experience. No lesson plans required, all lessons are included on the platform. No grading -- just a simple A-B-C grade for participation! Be your own boss! Make your own schedule! All while you're awaiting your brick-n-mortar interview and permanent position! Gain valuable teaching experience!

Qkids' patented user-friendly online classroom delivers unique learning experiences to families in the comfort of their own homes. Founded in 2015, Qkids has become a national leader in cross-cultural online learning and established offices in Shenzhen, Xiamen, Guangzhou, and Beijing. The company has completed its Series B financing round led by IDG Capital and is poised to build lasting growth across the world.

This is no fly-by-night organization, and I do not earn any commission or payment. If you'd like more information immediately, please visit our website <https://teacher.Qkids.net/>. Please do your own research and Google Qkids and see what others have to say about Qkids. Or go on YouTube and check it out. Here's a link to get you started! I can't wait to talk to you soon!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rIFx4d-XG4E&feature=youtu.be>

About Qkids Online Teaching - Be your own boss!

Be your own boss, teach from your computer! Kids in China are waiting on YOU!

Qkids is a leading online education platform that connects North American English teachers with over 800,000 Chinese students, from aged between 4 to 12 years old. Using a narrative game-based learning platform, thousands of English teachers from the U.S. and Canada guide students through a fun and dynamic curricular experience. Qkids' patented user-friendly online classroom delivers unique learning experiences to families in the comfort of their own homes. Founded in 2015, Qkids has become a national leader in cross-cultural online learning and established offices in Shenzhen, Xiamen, Guangzhou, and Beijing. The company has completed its series C1 financing round led by Baidu and it's poised to build lasting growth across the world.